Dear Fellow Bibliophile:

Welcome to "Catalogue V," our latest offering of fine numismatic literature. We are pleased to offer our largest and most varied selection of books, periodicals and auction catalogues to date. Hopefully, you will find something of interest, or perhaps that elusive early reference you have been seeking will be discovered within these pages.

As evidenced by the record-shattering prices realized at George Frederick Kolbe's recent auction in Los Angeles, the numismatic literature market appears to be growing at a phenomenal rate. Granted, some of the prices paid at that tremendous sale may have been the result of "auction fever," nevertheless, it is my feeling that, overall, the results indicate that collectors are awakening to the true scarcity and desirability of fine numismatic books. Is a plated Chapman catalogue of the Hunter Collection worth $9,000.00? Perhaps... perhaps not. But, it is worth far in excess of the $1,500.00 estimate given by the cataloguer.

As many of you may already know, a fine copy of Sylvester Sage Crosby's "Early Coins of America" sold at the Kolbe sale for $3,200.00. Another copy was knocked down at $2,500.00. Only a couple of years ago, this scarce major early work could be obtained for two or three hundred dollars. So, how much should one pay for a copy today? With an original printing in 1875 of only three hundred and fifty copies (generally accepted as the correct quantity), the work was legitimately scarce from the beginning. And, after 106 years, how many have survived? One hundred? Two hundred? Regardless, today the book must be considered to be extremely scarce, if not downright rare. It is my opinion that a nice, problem-free copy should sell in the $1,500.00 to $2,000.00 range.

With all of the hoopla surrounding the staggering prices recently paid for numismatic literature, the question arises: Does a book have to be expensive to be valuable? Indeed not! In fact, the majority of the accepted standard references in use today have been written during the past twenty years or so, and are readily available at nominal prices. As you peruse this catalogue, you will find many of these works offered at truly affordable prices. Perhaps one of the finest general references yet prepared is ~~C~~ David Bowers' marvelous "Adventures With Rare Coins." Still available at a cost of under $15.00, this book has to be one of the best bargains in numismatics.

At the same time, we are pleased to offer in this catalogue, some of the major rarities sought by the most earnest bibliophiles. Included amongst these works are such titles as Browning's original 1925 edition of "Early Quarter Dollars;" Crosby's "Early Coins of America" (1875); Dickeson's "American Numismatic Manual" (1859); 2 deluxe presentation copies of Beistle's "A Register of Half Dollar Die Varieties and Sub-Varieties" (1929); a leather-bound presentation copy of Newcomb's "United States Copper Cents 1816 - 1857" (1944); and a number of complete year volumes of "The Numismatist" from 1894 through 1927.

For the collector of early U. S. auction catalogues, we have assembled a large number of nice copies from 1860 through the turn of the century. Included are important sales conducted by such prominent dealers as Cogan, Low, Strobridge, Haseltine, Massamore, Woodward and others. There are more than sixty catalogues alone covering sales by Ed. Frossard.

Among a rather extensive listing of the Chapman catalogues will be found a number of the rare plated editions, including two copies of the legendary "Beckwith" Collection.

There are many copies of the ever-popular "Redbook," including no less than five copies of the very scarce first edition, and several copies of each of the subsequent editions.

For those seeking references on Foreign and Ancient numismatics, we are happy to offer an original 1904 edition of Neil Munro's "Coins of Japan," a very scarce and sought-after volume. There are two copies of Barclay Head's magnificent "Historia Numorum" (1911 edition - the best one), as well as numerous titles covering the coinages of many nations and all ages.

As previously announced, we will be conducting our first Mail Bid Sale this Fall. The closing date will be Tuesday, December 8. Consignments will be accepted until October 1. If you are considering disposal of your library or important duplicates, please contact us for details regarding consignment. Our commission fee of fifteen percent is among the lowest available; and you can be assured that your material will be described in a marketing-oriented style designed to create considerable interest among our nearly 1,000 clients.

Many of our customers are aware that, for the past year and a half, I have conducted my business on a "part-time" basis. This has made it extremely difficult for me to provide the personal attention that I would have preferred to offer all of my clients. However, thanks to all of the support you have given me during this period, I will shortly be leaving my manufacturing profession, and will be devoting myself to serving you on a full-time basis. This move will allow me the time necessary to seek out material, service your want lists, and do a more thorough job of preparing catalogues and fixed price lists. I would like to call your attention to my new address and phone number: 37445 Southwood Drive, Fremont, CA 94536. Phone: (415) 793-7734.

Again, I would like to thank all of you for your past patronage and support, and I look forward to a fine continuing relationship.

Best Regards,

Cal Wilson
